"Preparation is the Key to Success"

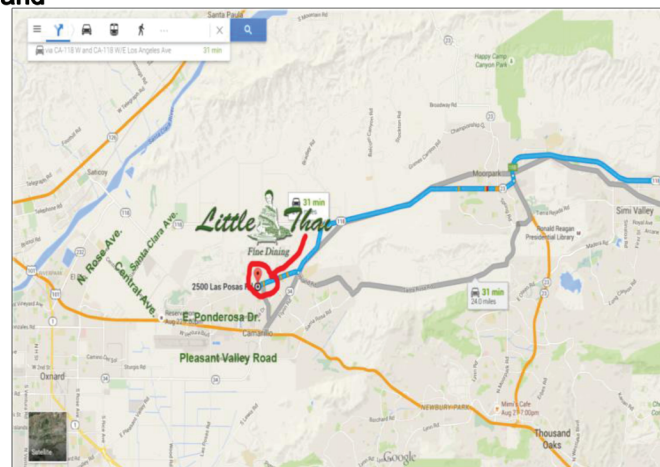

There is no secret to achieving success. It is simply the result of working hard, preparing well, learning skills and overcoming obstacles learned from our own or others' failures. She calls "Success is the consequence of your conscientiousness, commitment and consistency in everything you desire to achieve." Jamuna is untiring and persistent in all her endeavors to become successful in her personal and career goals. She strongly believes that preparing ourselves to take up challenges and to avoid risks is the key to success. Her philosophy in life is a consistent amelioration in every facet of our life, with an attitude of "take the good and weed the bad."

Speaker will share the values of CCC (Triple C) that can help you to be successful in your life.
